Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my keen interest in the Software Engineer position with the Messaging Platform Team at Postscript, as posted on LinkedIn.

I'm skilled in backend web development, AWS, and NoSQL databases like MongoDB and Redis.

I've built <https://www.wato-mate.in/> and believe our thoughts are aligned.

Furthermore, I am particularly drawn to Postscript's commitment to building revolutionary products in the domain of sms marketing, company values, work culture and diversity. Thank you for considering my application. I am enthusiastic about the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experiences align with the needs of Postscript.

Sincerely,

Ashlesh Shenoy
